Re: Conflicts of Interest in Representation of Kenneth Ravenell

Dear Mr. Treem:

We write to advise you that there are multiple nonwaivable conflicts of interest that prevent you from continuing to represent Kenneth Ravenell in connection with the ongoing grand jury investigation:

1. You are now a subject of the investigation and your conduct is within the scope of the grand jury's investigation.
2. You are partners with Kobie Flowers, Esq., and you are both members of the same law firm, Brown Goldstein Levy LLP. Mr. Flowers has also been subpoenaed to provide testimony before the grand jury and the Government has a good-faith basis to believe that he will provide testimony that is adverse to Mr. Ravenell's interests.
3. In addition to representing Mr. Ravenell, you also represented Tonya Kelly, Esq. in the investigation of Mr. Ravenell. Mr. Ravenell's interests are adverse to Ms. Kelly's interests.

We trust that you understand that these conflicts warrant your recusal and disqualification from further representation of Mr. Ravenell. Please advise us promptly if you do not intend to withdraw from your representation of Mr. Ravenell.

Yours truly,

Robert K. Hur
United States Attorney
